

From the war room to the courtroom, the team that supports you pre-trial is just as critical as the team that supports you in trial. Having a trial team you trust is essential to ensure you are fully prepared to tell your story.

Here are the top three keys to your pre-trial success:

Document, Equipment & Team Prep

- Build trial presentation database with exhibits, deposition transcripts and video, important pleadings and demonstratives
- Coordinate and set up courtroom and war room equipment
- Conduct run-throughs with trial team and experts ensuring a seamless and efficient

Graphics Creation

- Custom illustrations of complex technologies and concepts, as well as timelines, graphs, flow charts, etc.
- Develop 3D animations
- Large-scale fast turnaround of multiple sets of graphics

Video Clip Creation

- Load and perform quality control for all of the deposition video
- Edit depo clips from designations for impeachment or an unavailable witness
- Remove pauses and objections

"In almost 12 years of practice, I do not recall working with a legal services provider that was more dedicated to the cause, as easy to work with, and produced such an excellent product as you..."

Thanks again for your tireless 18-hour a day efforts and for fitting in so well with our trial team. It was as if you had been part of the trial team all along!"
