Exhibits can be stored on the client's local computer or accessed from the client's repository.

Exhibits can be marked, annotated and stamped confidential electronically.

Once saved exhibits will be sent directly to the reporter and saved in the client's repository.

Presenting Electronic Exhibits

Counsel can provide annotation rights to the witness and take them away at any time.

Easily zoom in and out of an exhibit.

Jump between pages of large documents and rotate individual pages.

Search content by name or date range.

Sort exhibits by witness or exhibit number.

Counsel has instant access to the final exhibits as they are marked in the deposition.
